Local Author Asked to Speak at Regional Conference Guy Sylvester will Address Indoor Air Quality

LACONIA, NH, February 23, 2011- Nationally recognized mold expert, published author, and local business owner Guy Sylvester will be one of the featured speakers at next week's "Northern New England Facility Masters Conference" in Laconia, NH on March 2 & 3, 2011.

The Northern New England Facility Masters Conference is a well-known career development and networking event for school facility, maintenance and business professionals. Attendees receive expert instruction by industry leaders from across the region on topics such as Occupational Health, Safety, and Best Practices in Facilities Management.

Sylvester, CEO of Absolute Resource Associates in Portsmouth, NH, was invited to speak at the Conference because of his extensive background in the area of Indoor Air Quality, which is a growing concern for schools and businesses across the nation.

Sylvester is a State and Board Certified Indoor Air Quality expert, who is often called upon to testify in court cases related to Indoor Air Quality and mold. As CEO of Absolute Resource Associates, an environmental services firm in Portsmouth, NH, Sylvester has developed a passion for helping people with illness related to air quality and is a featured speaker at various industry events.
